Affirm to continue as exclusive provider of Shop Pay Installments in US, will become exclusive provider in Canada

Expanded agreement enables partnership to continue growing to new markets worldwide, with plans to enter the UK

SAN FRANCISCO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 20, 2025-- Affirm (NASDAQ: AFRM), the payment network that empowers consumers and helps merchants drive growth, and Shopify, a provider of essential internet infrastructure for commerce, today announced an expanded global agreement. The renewed multi-year partnership cements Affirm's position as the exclusive pay-over-time provider for Shop Pay Installments in the U.S. It also extends this exclusivity into Shopify's home market of Canada and enables the partnership to continue growing into new markets worldwide, with plans to enter the U.K. on the horizon.

"Given the success of our long-standing partnership with Affirm in the U.S., bringing them to our merchants internationally is a no brainer," said Kaz Nejatian, COO of Shopify. "Affirm's premier technology, world-class team, and commitment to transparency make them a natural fit to continue supporting merchants in the Shopify ecosystem, and we look forward to bringing this same value to our merchants in Canada, the U.K., and beyond."

Over the coming months, eligible Shopify merchants in Canada will be able to seamlessly offer Shop Pay Installments powered by Affirm at checkout. Approved customers will be able to choose from customized biweekly and monthly payment plans, with rates as low as 0% APR, term lengths up to 24 months, and no late or hidden fees.

"Five years ago, Shopify and Affirm teamed up to create a bespoke payment solution that helps all kinds of businesses thrive by giving their customers more choice and flexibility," said Max Levchin, Founder and CEO of Affirm. "Since then, millions of consumers in the U.S. have relied on the value Shop Pay Installments offers, and we've heard from merchants all over the world who are clamoring for the growth potential it provides. We're excited to deliver on that promise and continue our international expansion."

Since its launch in 2021, Shop Pay Installments has been rapidly adopted, with millions of consumers using the payment option across Shopify's extensive merchant network in the U.S.
