Eligible shoppers can now pay over time for coveted sneakers, apparel, accessories and more with Affirm's customized biweekly and monthly payment plans

DETROIT--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 10, 2025-- StockX, a global resale marketplace for current culture products, today announced that it has partnered with Affirm (NASDAQ: AFRM), the payment network that empowers consumers and helps merchants drive growth. Eligible StockX shoppers in the U.S. can now access Affirm's flexible payment plans when purchasing coveted items from top brands like adidas, Supreme, Gucci, and more.

"At StockX, we're always looking for ways to enhance the customer experience and ensure our community has access to the world's most sought-after brands. Affirm's range of flexible pay-over-time options, including longer-term plans, gives our customers the power to choose what works best for their needs and shop confidently," said Jacob Fenton, Vice President of Customer Experience and Insights at StockX. "This partnership supports our mission to empower everyone to trade what they love, while upholding the convenience and service that define the StockX experience."

With this new offering, eligible shoppers can choose Affirm's biweekly or monthly payment plans at checkout. The process is simple: after selecting Affirm, consumers enter a few pieces of information, and go through a quick, real-time eligibility check. If approved, consumers can choose the customized payment plan that best suits their needs. As always, Affirm never charges any late or hidden fees.

"This partnership comes as demand for 'Affirming' apparel and accessories is higher than ever, with approximately 25% growth in these categories from October to December 2024," said Pat Suh, SVP of Revenue at Affirm. "By partnering with StockX, we're giving shoppers more of what they're looking for at checkout – clear, flexible payment options with no late or hidden fees. This empowers them to shop responsibly and stay in control of their budget."

To celebrate this launch, StockX and Affirm are offering eligible customers an exclusive, limited-time offer. From March 10 to 17, shoppers can select Affirm at checkout on the StockX website or app and see if they qualify for the Affirm 0% APR Drop, paying over three or six months interest-free.
